CertDirectory.io

To Whom It May Concern,

I, Sajeeva Nambadawa Vithanage, Creator of CertDirectory.io, a community-driven platform dedicated to encouraging self-development in Cloud Native and Kubernetes technologies, am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Renaud Fleury.

As an active mentor within our community, Mr. Fleury has made a meaningful and lasting impact. He has successfully recruited and guided three mentees, delivering tailored training sessions designed around their specific needs and career goals. These sessions were thoughtfully aligned with the Cloud Native Computing Foundation (CNCF) and Linux Foundation certification frameworks, ensuring both technical depth and practical relevance.

Mr. Fleury played a key role in structuring individualized learning paths, curating and adapting content to meet certification standards, and leading hands-on sessions to reinforce knowledge. His work exemplifies the values of CertDirectory.io—community support, technical excellence, and personal growth.

The mentees he supported have shared highly positive feedback, emphasizing Mr. Fleury's deep expertise, adaptive teaching approach, and strong personal commitment to their success. His guidance has significantly accelerated their confidence and ability to navigate the CNCF and Linux Foundation ecosystems.

This letter was issued at the request of Mr. Renaud Fleury.

Sincerely,
Sajeeva Nambadawa Vithanage
